

Pappas Telecasting Companies' 'donation' of $325,000 in airtime is an unfair use of the public airwaves. It is the FCC's responsibility to regulate their activities. This seems to be an unlawful attempt on their part and I feel this agency should look in to it as soon as possible as the election will be over soon. Thank you , John Acker